SUPPLEMENT

1. It is reported that Barzani foraging parties composed of from three to five men now frequently cross the Soviet-Iranian border into the territory of the Jallalis in northwestern Iran to beg food.
- 25X1X 2. The Barzanis, [REDACTED] state that the Soviet rations are one loaf of bread per day for men and a half loaf per day for youths. Reportedly, the Barzanis claim general mistreatment from the Soviets, who are keeping them near Pul Dasht and Shah Takhti in guarded areas which are enclosed, except for the side bordering on the Araxes River.
- 25X1X 3. [REDACTED] that Amr Khan has suggested to the Jallalis that they should not aid the Barzanis who cross the border into Iran.
